

THE KID CLAIMS EFC GOLD AFTER DRAMATIC EVENT

Official EFC 128 Results

9 October 2025

Johannesburg, South Africa — EFC 128 delivered another unforgettable night of mixed martial arts action at the World Sports Betting Arena, where Billy Oosthuizen was crowned the new EFC Interim Featherweight Champion in dramatic fashion.

The highly anticipated main event between Oosthuizen and Ken Sekeletu ended in controversy when Sekeletu was disqualified in Round 3 for repeated illegal strikes. Oosthuizen, who successfully made weight and was the only fighter eligible to win the title, emerged as the rightful new interim champion after a tense and emotional showdown.

Before the main event, fans inside the arena were treated to an electric moment as Boyd Allen and Vince Bembe stepped into the Hexagon for a face-off ahead of their clash at EFC 129, where they will battle for the number one contender spot in the featherweight division. The winner of that bout will go on to face newly crowned interim champion Billy Oosthuizen in a future title showdown.

Elsewhere on the card, fans were treated to a night of spectacular finishes, tactical battles, and rising stars making their mark inside the Hex. Siyakudumisa Nomvemve showcased experience and composure in a hard-fought unanimous decision victory over JT Botha, while Ayanda Zwane edged past Roberto Miyaba in a razor-close split decision.

Brandon Santos secured one of the most memorable wins of the evening with a slick first-round triangle choke over Kgaugelo Moitshela, and William Lekana continued his knockout streak with a devastating first-round TKO of Nicolaas Vermaak. In a disciplined performance, Yaseen Adams dominated Rudolf Sekhukhune across all three rounds to earn a clean unanimous decision victory.
