

UNBEATEN JASON MACKAY RETURNS FOR BIGGEST TEST YET AT EFC 137

Guide Moyo welcomes rising South African prospect in lightweight showdown

Johannesburg, South Africa – 8 July 2026

Another exciting matchup has been confirmed for EFC 137, with unbeaten Cape Town prospect Jason Mackay returning to face experienced Zimbabwean Guide Moyo in a lightweight contest on Thursday, 10 September.

Representing Madfit MMA in Cape Town under former EFC lightweight champion and former UFC contender Don Madge, Mackay earned his EFC contract through the Contender Series before announcing himself with back to back knockout victories. After stopping his opponent on debut at the EFC Knox Series, the Cape Town athlete overcame early adversity against Guelor Sondi in his second appearance, finding his timing before delivering a spectacular walk off knockout to remain undefeated.

A composed and intelligent all round martial artist, Mackay has quickly gained a reputation for reading his opponents, adapting during the fight and capitalising when opportunities present themselves. Now, he faces the toughest test of his young professional career.

Standing across from him will be Zimbabwe's Guide Moyo, who trains out of Agoge in Pretoria under respected coach Tjolla Louw. One of the lightweight division's most experienced campaigners, Moyo brings a kickboxing foundation complemented by a deceptively effective ground game. Durable, battle tested and always eager to stay active, he presents the ideal measuring stick for one of EFC's fastest rising prospects.

Can Mackay continue his impressive rise, or will Moyo's experience prove the difference?

Additional EFC 137 matchups will be announced in the coming days as the September card continues to take shape.

EFC 137 takes place on Thursday, 10 September at the World Sports Betting EFC Arena in Johannesburg. Broadcast and ticket information will be announced soon at efcworldwide.com.
