

EFC 132 FULL FIGHT CARD CONFIRMED AS COUNTDOWN TO HEAVYWEIGHT TITLE FIGHT BEGINS

19 March 2026

Johannesburg, South Africa - With just three weeks to go, the countdown to EFC 132 is officially underway as the full fight card is confirmed ahead of a major night of championship action.

The official EFC 132 Countdown Show has now been released, offering a closer look at the athletes and matchups set to define the event.

Headlining the card DRC's Matunga "HHH" Djikasa and Senegal's Adama Diop. Djikasa returns to defend the title with his dynamic striking and ability to control range, while Diop enters as one of the most dangerous challengers in the division, undefeated in EFC and bringing a powerful wrestling base into the matchup.

The supporting card features a lineup of established names, returning contenders, and emerging talent across multiple divisions.

In the middleweight division, JT Botha faces Mzwandile Hlongwa in a matchup between two experienced fighters with contrasting styles. Zhane Tannous meets Siyakudumisa Nomvemve at catchweight in a contest built around physicality and control. Former bantamweight champion Gift Walker returns against Angola's Eduardo Barros.

Elsewhere, Jaco du Plessis takes on Christopher Moly at welterweight, while Mpho Hloka meets Mlungisi Mbizane in a bantamweight contest between two rising athletes. Adei Volker faces Wallace Okosso at middleweight, Kelvin Smit meets Mfanufuthi Ngobese at flyweight, and Lucky Magekha takes on Johannes Rudolph at featherweight.

The card also features Rudolf Sekhukhune vs Godfrey Mkhwanazi, Thapelo Seabi vs Story Mpia Embombe, and an opening flyweight bout between Obakeng Mahura and Tryford Mwanga.

With the full lineup now confirmed and the countdown underway, EFC 132 is set to deliver a complete night of fights leading into a heavyweight championship main event.

EFC 132 takes place April 9 in Johannesburg and is presented by World Sports Betting.
