

THE WOLF AWAITS THE SNIPER AT EFC 139

David Makane steps in to face Team CIT prospect Tyron Lamprecht following William Lekana's injury withdrawal

Johannesburg, South Africa - 20 October 2026

A new bantamweight contest has been confirmed for EFC 139 on Thursday, 5 November, with David "The Wolf" Makane stepping in to face Tyron "The Sniper" Lamprecht at the WSB EFC Arena in Johannesburg.

Makane replaces William "Ragnar" Lekana, who has been forced to withdraw from the event due to injury. The change presents an opportunity for Makane to make his mark against one of South Africa's emerging MMA prospects.

Representing Team CIT in Pretoria under coach Stephan de la Rey, Lamprecht arrives in the organisation following a successful amateur career that saw him capture a national amateur featherweight title in January 2025.

He subsequently earned an EFC contract through the Contender Series, opening the door to the next chapter of his professional career.

Known for his explosive footwork, quick hands and effective striking combinations, Lamprecht has demonstrated an ability to remain composed under pressure and adapt when faced with adversity. His disciplined approach and willingness to engage in demanding exchanges have helped establish him as a promising addition to the EFC roster.

He now has the opportunity to establish himself in the bantamweight division on one of Africa's biggest MMA stages.

Standing across from him will be Makane, an experienced EFC competitor representing Dominators Den in Secunda under coach Cedric Doyle.

A silver medallist at the 2022 South African Amateur MMA Championships, Makane has already experienced the demands of professional competition inside the Hexagon.

His boxing foundation, varied kicking attacks and elusive movement make him a challenging opponent to pin down. He is also capable of scrambling out of difficult positions and disrupting an opponent's rhythm through close-range exchanges.

While Lamprecht will be looking to announce his arrival with a convincing performance, Makane has an opportunity to demonstrate the value of experience against an ambitious newcomer.

The late change of opponent adds another dimension to the contest, with both athletes now preparing for a different challenge than originally anticipated.

With The Wolf determined to seize his opportunity and The Sniper looking to make an immediate impression, this bantamweight meeting adds further depth to the EFC 139 fight card.

The event will be headlined by South Africa's Godfrey "FeralSpunky" Mkhwanazi against Namibia's undefeated Veja "Hinda Boy" Hinda, with Nasiphi Vellem against Grant Farrow, Sisa Jungula against Micky Cloete, and Ayanda Zwane against Yaseen Adams among the other confirmed contests.

EFC 139 is presented by World Sports Betting and takes place on Thursday, 5 November at the WSB EFC Arena in Johannesburg, South Africa. Tickets and broadcast information are available at:
