

SISA JUNGULA DEBUTS AGAINST THE BUTCHER

A NEW FLYWEIGHT ERA BEGINS AT EFC 122

2 APRIL 2025

Johannesburg, South Africa - EFC 122 is just over a week away, and the excitement is building for an already stacked fight card. The flyweight division will witness a thrilling clash between Sisa Jungula, Gqeberha's electrifying amateur champion, and Mpumelelo "The Butcher" Mngoma, a seasoned contender from Fight Street MMA, in a bout that promises to deliver fireworks.

The spotlight is on Sisa Jungula as he makes his highly anticipated pro debut after an outstanding amateur career, capped off by claiming the prestigious Africa's IMMAF title last year. Schooled by the legendary Chris Bright at PESFA, Jungula is known for his dynamic grappling and fleet-footed striking. After clinching the Versus bantamweight championship earlier this year, the Gqeberha native has now moved down to the flyweight division, where his lightning-fast pace and technical skill will put him to the test in the pro ranks. Jungula enters the Hexagon with a legacy to build upon and a point to prove to the EFC audience that he is ready for the big leagues.

However, Mpumelelo Mngoma is no stranger to high-level competition. Known as “The Butcher,” Mngoma hails from uMuziwabantu, KwaZulu-Natal, and is now based at Fight Street MMA in Carletonville. With an impressive resume that includes battles against some of the best in the division, including Vuyo Jula, Mickey Cloete, and Edson Machavane, Mngoma is a fighter with grit and determination. In his last bout, Mngoma submitted Tyril Louw with a first-round armbar, proving that his ground game is as dangerous as his stand-up. Aware of Jungula’s potential, Mngoma is ready to give the debutant a rude awakening in what will be an intense flyweight clash.

EFC 122 is headlined by two highly anticipated title fights. The heavyweight championship will see reigning champion Anthony Morel defend his belt against Elvis Mayo and for the bantamweight championship, Faez Jacobs defends against Sibusiso Sovendle in a fight that promises to be as explosive as it is technical.

EFC 122 Morel vs Moyo for the EFC heavyweight championship takes place on Thursday 10th April 2025, live from the World Sports Betting Arena at the EFC Performance Institute in JHB, South Africa.
