

EFC 128 FIGHT WEEK OFFICIALLY UNDERWAY

Ken & Billy Clash at Press Conference

6 October 2025

Johannesburg, South Africa - EFC 128 Fight Week has officially kicked off in explosive fashion, as the main event athletes Ken Sekeletu, the champion, and Billy “The Kid” Oosthuizen faced off for the first time ahead of their Interim Featherweight Title showdown this Thursday, 9 October, live from the World Sports Betting Arena at the EFC Performance Institute, Johannesburg.

The EFC 128 Fight Week Press Conference, held earlier today, was packed with energy, intensity, and verbal warfare as both fighters traded barbs before their highly anticipated clash.

Sekeletu, calm yet cutting in his responses, warned fans not to bet against him, saying: “Don’t put any money on this guy, because you won’t get it back.”

He followed up with confidence:

“You’re late for the press conference — you’re late. The fight’s already over.”

“You will never be the favourite against me.”

Oosthuizen, never one to back down, fired back with trademark bravado:

“Nobody you’ve fought has fought back. Wait till you fight someone who fights back.”

“What am I late for? I am the show!”

Their fiery exchange ended in an intense face-off, setting the tone for what promises to be a spectacular featherweight title clash.

Other main card athletes were also in attendance, sharing their thoughts, predictions, and excitement for Thursday’s matchups — adding even more fuel to an already red-hot fight night coming up.
