

EFC 122 OFFICIAL WEIGH-IN RESULTS

TENSIONS HIGH AHEAD OF HEAVYWEIGHT SHOWDOWN

9 APRIL 2025

Johannesburg, South Africa - The official weigh-ins for EFC 122 are complete, and anticipation is building for a night of elite-level competition featuring two blockbuster headliners and a stacked card. The event, which takes place tomorrow at the WSB Arena in Johannesburg South Africa, will showcase some of the top athletes on the African continent across 12 action-packed bouts.

Heavyweight Championship Main Event

In the main event, Anthony Morel of Réunion and Elvis “The Bomber” Moyo of Zimbabwe both tipped the scales at 262.5 pounds, setting the stage for a clash of disciplines. Morel, a powerhouse wrestler with relentless top pressure, will look to defend his title and neutralize the world-class striking of Moyo—a decorated African boxing champion and specialist in the sweet science. With the EFC heavyweight title on the line, this bout promises a classic battle of styles at the highest level.

Bantamweight Co-Main Event Update

Drama unfolded at the scales as Sibusiso Sovendle missed weight by a wide margin, coming in at 142.6 pounds, while champion Faez “Troublemaker” Jacobs made championship weight at 133.3 pounds. As a result, the bantamweight title will no longer be contested; however, both athletes have agreed to proceed with the bout. The contest now stands as a non-title fight, with pride and momentum on the line.
