

ELVIS MOYO CROWNED HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION IN THRILLING NIGHT OF FINISHES AND FIREPOWER

EFC 122 Official Results

10 APRIL 2025

EFC 122 delivered an unforgettable night of high-stakes action at the WSB Arena, headlined by a stunning heavyweight title upset and a dominant bantamweight title defense. With finishes in nearly every bout, the event reaffirmed the EFC's reputation as the premier proving ground for African combat sports.

Main Event: Moyo Shocks Morel to Capture Heavyweight Gold

In a stunning twist to cap off the night, Elvis "The Bomber" Moyo silenced the crowd and dethroned reigning heavyweight champion Anthony Morel via verbal submission just two seconds into round four. Known for his boxing pedigree, Moyo showcased a well-rounded game, weathering early grappling exchanges before turning the tide with punishing pressure. The win marks a massive moment in Moyo's career as he becomes the new EFC Heavyweight Champion.

Jacobs Retains Bantamweight Title with Vicious KO

In the co-main event, Faez “Troublemaker” Jacobs reminded everyone why he’s the king of the bantamweight division, dispatching Sibusiso Sovendle with a devastating knockout at 3:30 of the first round. Despite the bout being shifted to non-title status due to Sovendle missing weight, Jacobs put on a clinical striking display, extending his reign with authority and reinforcing his status as one of the most dangerous athletes on the roster.

Highlight Finishes Across the Card

The action-packed night featured a wave of impressive finishes, with standout performances across all divisions:

Elvis Moyo defeated Anthony Morel by verbal submission 0:02 into round 4 (EFC heavyweight championship).

Faez Jacobs defeated Sibusiso Sovendle by Knockout 3:30 into round 1 (EFC bantamweight championship defence).

Siyakudumisa Nomvemve defeated Mzwandile Hlongwa by Tapout 3:12 into round 1.

Asiashu Tshitamba defeated Vince Bembe by split decision after 3 rounds. Ceileigh Niedermayr defeated Rebecca Amongi by unanimous decision after 3 rounds.

Nathanial Komana defeated Kgaugelo Moitshela by TKO (strikes) 4:27 into round 2.

Adrian Sanchez defeated Robert Simbowe by Knockout 1:42 into round 1.

Kevin Pretorius defeated Lucky Bosco by TKO (strikes) 3:49 into round 2.

Thimna Mhlauli defeated Bheki Ngcobo by Tapout (RNC) 3:11 into round 1.

Tico van den Berg defeated Khulekani Hlongwa by TKO (strikes) 1:28 into round 2.

Kelvin Smit 124 defeated Teboho Ntene by Tapout (RNC) 2:42 into round 2.

Sisa Jungula defeated Mpumelelo Mngoma by unanimous decision after 3 rounds.

With knockouts, submissions, and dramatic momentum shifts throughout the night, EFC 122 delivered a spectacle for fight fans across Africa and around the world.

EFC 122 Bonuses

Fight of the Night: Vince Bembe vs Asiashu Tshitamba

Performance bonuses: Ceileigh Niedermayr, Adrian Sanchez, Kevin Pretorius, Thimna Mhlauli, Tico van den Berg, Siyakudumisa Nomvemve & Faez Jacobs

Post Event Press Conference Face-off

In one of the most electrifying moments outside of the Hexagon in EFC history, newly crowned heavyweight champion Elvis Moyo came face-to-face with former titleholder Matunga 'HHH' Djikasa during the post-event press conference. The two giants engaged in a tense verbal standoff that nearly boiled over, sending shockwaves through the arena and setting the tone for what promises to be a seismic clash. A date for the heavyweight title bout between Moyo and Djikasa will be confirmed soon, and fans can expect nothing less than fireworks when these two collide.

Up next is EFC 123 on 8 May set to feature three championship bouts featuring Africa's best taking on the warriors from Brazil. Bout details to be announced soon. See efcworldwide.com for more.