

EFC 129 FIGHT CARD UPDATE

2 Bouts Added

3 November 2025

Johannesburg, South Africa - With fight week underway and anticipation building for Thursday's EFC 129 event at the World Sports Betting Arena in Johannesburg, two new bouts have been officially confirmed, while one has been withdrawn from the card.

At the top of the bill, all eyes remain on the highly anticipated featherweight contender bout between Boyd Allen and Vince Bembe. The former champion faces one of the most dangerous rising names in African MMA in what promises to be a defining moment for both men.

Adding to the excitement, Dauda "Go Getter" Rajabu will face Lecture "The Mafia" Gumbi in a catchweight bout at 138lbs. Rajabu, the long and rangy Tanzanian submission specialist, takes on Gumbi, the resilient Zimbabwean boxer stepping in on short notice. It is a clash of styles between elite grappling and power striking that promises high-paced action.

Also joining the lineup, Nerik "The Beast" Simoes meets Musa "Bad News" Sethwape in a catchweight contest at 148lbs. Both veterans bring experience and finishing ability to the Hex, with Simoes known for his sharp striking and ground skills, and Sethwape for his relentless pressure and heavy hands.

The bout featuring Itumaleng has been cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.
