

CAMEROON'S JOEL TIFFO STEPS IN FOR INJURED SCHEEPERS AT EFC 136

Scheepers Withdraws Through Injury As Cameroon's Joel Tiffo Faces Adei Volker

Johannesburg, South Africa - 16 July 2026

A change has been made to the EFC 136 main card after Armand Scheepers was forced to withdraw from his scheduled middleweight contest with Adei Volker due to injury. EFC wishes Scheepers a full and speedy recovery.

Stepping into the bout is Bamenda, Cameroon athlete Joel Tiffo, who now receives the opportunity to compete on Africa's biggest mixed martial arts stage. Tiffo will make his EFC debut against undefeated South African middleweight Adei Volker when EFC 136 takes place on Thursday, 6 August, at the World Sports Betting EFC Arena in Johannesburg.

Representing Durban's Forge MMA under coach William Olberholzer, Volker enters the contest with an unblemished 2-0 professional record following an impressive start to his EFC career. Backed by an extensive amateur background, the physically imposing middleweight has showcased dominant grappling, elite Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu and relentless top control, quickly establishing himself as one of the division's most promising young athletes.

Despite the change of opponent, Volker remains focused on extending his unbeaten run and securing a third consecutive EFC victory inside the EFC Hexagon.

For Tiffo, EFC 136 presents the opportunity to announce himself with a statement performance against one of the organisation's brightest prospects. For Volker, the objective remains unchanged as he continues his climb through the middleweight division.

The EFC 136 main card broadcasts live on SuperSport, SABC Openview, Discover Sport, DAZN and other international broadcast partners.

The EFC 136 preliminary card streams live globally on Discover Sport.

The EFC 136 event is headlined by Sanchez vs Swanepoel for the interim lightweight championship and is presented by World Sports Betting live from the World Sports Betting EFC Arena in Johannesburg, South Africa on August 6.
